

Sarah's March Garden Diary

With spring on the way – now's the time to sow hardy annuals, prune fuchsias and get weeding!

SHOOT'S TOP GARDEN TIPS

- ① Feed roses with a slow release plant food
- ② Divide and replant clumps to rejuvenate
- ③ Prune summer flowering shrubs gently and remove any deadheads

For tips specific to your garden visit shootgardening.co.uk

Steel yourself: A special focal point for your garden

A great feature for your garden!

This high quality, extra large stainless steel garden wall has its own built-in reservoir. It's made in the UK using marine grade stainless steel, and offers a beautiful contemporary design that will make a real statement in any garden. Made to order, it can be bought together with its own reservoir system and pumps. It's available in three sizes, with the six-foot high model retailing at £1,550. Order online at ingarden.co.uk or telephone 01732 832299 for more details.

A tidy garden...

Made from wood with a distressed finish, the fabric pockets on this Garden/Kitchen Tidy from Lavender and Lime depict various herbs and are finished with matching beading. The piece hangs from a piece of jute string, and is at home in any kitchen, shed or conservatory. £16.95, Lavender and Lime, lavenderandlime.co.uk

On your Marks in the garden!

Perfect for the contemporary garden, these substantial and stylish pots can either be presented alone or grouped together for maximum impact. The new M&S range is pleasantly tactile but neutral in tone, which means that it will fit with everything you plan to plant this spring. From £9.50, marksandspencer.com

Gardening first

Guided inspiration and practical preparation are the foundations of any individual and beautiful garden, and this book offers first-time gardeners the chance to develop an understanding of garden design and planning, as well as telling you the tools you need for the different jobs. £4.99, newhollandpublishers.com

